FAQs about CMRIPS Council

1. What is the CMRIPS Council?

CMRIPS Council is a group of individuals who oversee the affairs of the college by ensuring the regulation of all medical radiation and imaging professionals in Saskatchewan and protecting the public interest. Council consists of 8 appointed CMRIPS members and 3 public representatives who are appointed by government.

2. What are some of the benefits to serving on Council?

- Our profession relies on volunteers to contribute to the work of self-regulation; they work to ensure protection of the public. Serving on council will provide many opportunities for personal and professional growth such as:
- Developing leadership and organizational skills by chairing or/and participating in committee and Council meetings.
- Gaining a broader view of the profession from a member and public's perspective.
- Learning more about professional regulation and contributing to CMRIPS mandate of protecting the public.
- Networking and learning with/from professional peers.

3. Am I eligible for nomination?

Any member in good standing, other than a student member or a retired member, is eligible to be nominated for appointment as per CMRIPS admin bylaws and the Council Selection and Appointment Policy.

4. What if I know nothing about being on Council?

Serving on Council is a learning experience and provides an excellent opportunity to acquire new skills. Other council members, as well as CMRIPS staff, are there to offer guidance and support.

5. What is the time commitment for Council work?

Council meets four times per year alternating between Regina and Saskatoon. Meetings are planned to avoid any interference with a member's regular working hours where possible.

- Regular Council meetings (4 times per year)
- CMRIPS Annual General Meeting
- Virtual meetings as required.

*Please note attendance at these meetings is expected, with only rare instances of absence.

6. How long is a term on Council?

The term of office for Chair, Past Chair and Vice-Chair is one year; for Members-at-Large, a term is three years. Members are eligible for re-appointment. All terms begin January 1.

7. Are Council members compensated for attending Council meetings?

Council members receive a daily meeting stipend for face-to-face meetings, and an annual professional allowance after one year of volunteer service. Council members are also reimbursed for travel, accommodation, meal expenses and an honorarium as per CMRIPS Policy.
